

The Logistic Center

Modern handling and storage techniques provide a high quality delivery service.

A

State-of-the-art warehouse logistics and handling technology stand for more quality within the supply chain.

Sophisticated warehouse and conveyor technology as well as integrated information technology make the system unique in the industry.

Widely automated, many hundreds of orders are guided through "just in time" from more than 16,000 pallet storing positions on a daily basis.